

CZARISM NOT ONE OF ROOSEVELT'S TRAITS.

Senator Spooner of Wisconsin Challenges Gorman to Proof.

Politics Crop Out In Debate In Upper Branch of Congress.

Charges That the Democratic Slogan Is "Roosevelt Must Be Beaten."

WASHINGTON, April 9.—"What we say here goes into the permanent record," said Mr. Spooner. "If we cast reflections upon any person or official of the Government, they are there for all time. We are supposed to speak from a high standard." Thus began a lively debate in the Senate today on the postoffice bill.

Continuing, Mr. Spooner read from the President's report on the investigation to show that there had been no hesitancy on the part of the officials of the Postoffice department to undertake the investigation, and declared that there had been nothing in the record of the department to impeach the fidelity of the Postmaster-General. He said that Mr. Payne had not been a candidate for the position, nor had it been sought for him, although it was the life ambition of Mr. Payne to become Postmaster-General.

Mr. Spooner paid tribute to Mr. Payne, who, he said, had been unjustly maligned more than any other official in a number of years. He referred to the record of Charles Emery Smith, and commended his service to the Government as one of self-sacrifice. Mr. Spooner said that the Comptroller of the Treasury, Mr. Tracewell, has been subjected to adverse criticism, and that official he believed to be an upright, honest and incorruptible official and an able lawyer.

Letter From Roosevelt.

Mr. Spooner put into the record a letter from the President to Mr. Payne commending him for the work he had done in connection with the postoffice investigation.

Speaking of the charge of corruption, Mr. Spooner advanced the idea that there was much less of it now than in former years. He did not believe, for instance, that a Credit Mobilier scandal would be possible in the Congress of today. He defended the Senate for its failure to adopt the Penrose resolution, and announced his conviction that the demand for an inquiry was not uncolored by political interest.

"There have been no charges except those made by Mr. Bristow," said the speaker, "and Mr. Bristow has made no charges that had not been investigated."

He said that it would have been impossible to make an investigation in the time fixed by the resolution, and suggested that a Credit Mobilier scandal would be possible in the Congress of today. He defended the Senate for its failure to adopt the Penrose resolution, and announced his conviction that the demand for an inquiry was not uncolored by political interest.

Mr. Spooner said it would have been impossible for the Senate to make a complete investigation as Mr. Bristow had made no charges. He said, "And I think," he said, "that, whatever our friends on the other side of the chamber may find to say of the President, the great mass of the people will agree with me in saying that the beginning he has shown that he will not tolerate wrong-doing."

He charged the Democrats in both houses of Congress with having adopted as a party slogan the declaration that "Roosevelt must be beaten."

"Why? Because they say he is a law unto himself, a czar—unsuspected—a law-maker, a lawbreaker, and the like, while the candidates on the other side is safe and sound, calm and judicial. Do you have to have some one to testify that he is a Democrat? He had it not from Mr. Cleveland, whose Democracy itself is unquestioned."

What evidence, Mr. Spooner asked, had Mr. Gorman that the President is a czar?

He would hate to believe that Mr. Gorman meant to charge that the Republican Senators had abdicated their functions as Senators, but he had shown that disposition by charging that they are blindly obeying some outside behest to adjourn Congress at an early date. As for himself he would admit that he desired to adjourn. He wanted to get away, not only because he believed the work of the session had been practically completed, but because he thought the Democratic members ought to be allowed to get away and consult the people with the end in view of having "the two wings of the Democratic party flap together, so that they can select as a candidate some safe, calm, silent, judicious man who cannot be held up in North Carolina as a trust buster and in Wall Street as a man entirely devoted to the business interests."

Railroad King Held.

Speaking of Mr. Gorman's reference to Mr. J. I. Hill and the bill for the amendment of the Interstate Commerce law, Mr. Spooner said he agreed with Mr. Gorman that Hill's was the "greatest transportation mind in the country." He expressed the opinion that Mr. Gorman's position in that connection was "intended to touch the pocket-books of Mr. Hill's coterie of financiers when the necessities arise, as they will, but I venture the prediction that Mr. Hill and his associates will not press with tumultuous haste to the support of the Senator until assured that he had a solid Democracy behind him in support of that measure."

Mr. Spooner defended the President against Mr. Gorman's charge of violating the Interstate Commerce law and also against the charge of a violation of law in connection with the old age pension order. Referring to the pension matter he said that "so far from violating the law it had ameliorated a violation of the law in 1893 when there was a Democratic President." He would not admit in response to a question from Overman that the pending campaign had influenced the old age order. He said that it was not intended that the strict rules of the courts should be applied in granting pensions and he argued that the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Pensions were to be the judges as to what shall constitute "due proof" under the law.

REMOVAL OF SACRED EMBLEMS CAUSES TROUBLE

PARIS, April 9.—Premier Combes' order to remove sacred emblems from the courthouses is causing agitation in Paris and throughout the provinces. At Havre the workmen declined to take down sacred images, and at Lyons the refusal of the workmen to do the same thing compelled the authorities to have to resort to the bureau of architecture.

In order to prevent demonstrations on the removal of crucifixes, etc., from the Palace of Justice and other tribunals in Paris, the work is being done behind closed doors.

He defended the President against the charge of violating the law, saying that "whatever else the President of the United States has demonstrated he has shown unflinching devotion to the law. It has always been his doctrine that the Executive should enforce the law and that if the law is not right it should be repealed. Not so, thought Mr. Gorman, with Theodore Roosevelt. But for the President's action every city in the country would have been the scene of violence and rioting."

The prosecution of the Northern Securities case also was referred to because, said Mr. Spooner, the President had registered an oath in Heaven to enforce the law, notwithstanding he might make enemies in doing so.

MANY RIOTERS FALL BEFORE CAVALRY

AMIENS, France, April 9.—Two thousand strikers today attacked a force of infantry sent to guard a factory here. Cavalry reinforcements arrived and charged the mob, using their sabres upon those who refused to disperse. Many of the rioters were fatally wounded and a number of soldiers were seriously injured by stones thrown by the mob. The town tonight is patrolled by a large force of military, and a detachment of artillery with machine guns has been summoned. Business is at a standstill.

SENATOR'S NIECE SNARED BY CUPID

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.

BALTIMORE, April 9.—Senator Gorman's favorite niece, Miss Nora Gorman, it is announced, is to be married, and fashionable folk are preparing for the wedding, which will take place at Oak Forest Park, near Catonsville, on April 20th. The bridegroom-to-be is Dr. E. G. Ballinger of Atlanta, Ga., who is the son of T. T. Ballinger of Tyron, S. C.

Miss Gorman is the daughter of William H. Gorman, whose country estate is one of the most beautiful in Baltimore and its suburbs. A large party will witness the ceremony and attend the reception. A large contingent of Washington society will be present, while parties from New York, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Richmond, Va., are to be here.

Miss Gorman made her debut three years ago. She is highly educated and an heiress.

WHITE HOUSE TOTS MUST SAY "MAM'ELLE"

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—A French governess has been added to the Roosevelt household.

Quentin, the President's youngest son, is her special charge. She is teaching him to speak French with the Parisian accent. She is also teaching him to speak English with a French accent.

The governess had not been in the White House twenty-four hours before she proved that she would tolerate no familiarity from even the President's family. The children started to call her governess by her first name, but she put her French heel down and announced that she must be spoken of and to as "mam'selle."

Obedience was not as prompt and implicit as she desired, and she immediately served notice on the President and Mrs. Roosevelt that she would leave if she was not addressed as "mam'selle."

TO SIGN DEEDS FOR BIG POWER PROJECT

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.

BOISE, Ida., April 9.—I. D. Pettie of Blue Lakes and R. M. McCollum of Shoshone are here today for the purpose of executing a trust deed and bonds in favor of the Chicago Title Trust company for $250,000 in connection with the Shoshone Falls power proposition. The project is now well under way and there is no indication of a delay of any kind.

LAWYER ACCUSED OF PARTICIPATION IN ROBBERY

CALGARY, N. W. T., April 9.—J. A. Baggis, a well-known lawyer, has been arrested by the mounted police, on the charge of complicity in the $10,000 robbery which occurred four months ago between this place and Winnipeg. Thomas Behan, a horse dealer, and Jerry Boyce, a hotel keeper at Glenora, were taken into custody in connection with the case. The case was worked up by Seattle, Wash., detectives.

Foul odors, thick deposits, painful urination are cured by Oregon Kidney Tea.

MRS BOTKIN FACING SECOND CHARGE

Condemned Woman Must Now Stand Trial for Killing Mrs. Dean.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Joshua D. Dean of Del Norte County, charged with the murder of his wife, Ida Honrietta Dean, by means of the same poisoned candy that caused the death of her sister, Mrs. Dunning. The complaint is similar in form to the indictment found against Mrs. Botkin by the grand jury in the Dunning case. A warrant for Mrs. Botkin's arrest on this new charge of murder will probably be served on her some time today, and her preliminary examination may begin on Monday.

This action has been taken in order to perpetuate the testimony of the witnesses brought from Delaware by the State who are anxious to return home and cannot be legally compelled to come back to California in case of a retrial of the case.

Their testimony will be identical with that already given and can be used at a future trial if taken during a preliminary examination, though, under the laws of the State, the evidence presented during the recent trial would not be admissible if objected to.

Mrs. Botkin is reported to be in a state of nervous collapse, but if her physical condition permits there will be no delay in the proceedings instituted today by District Attorney Livingston.

Some of the evidence already given by the witnesses may be accepted by stipulation, but it is expected that they will be re-examined on vital points. At the conclusion of the hearing the Delaware witnesses will return to their homes.

Frank McGowan, one of Mrs. Botkin's attorneys, stated that when she comes in to court on April 16th for the passing of the sentence of life imprisonment imposed by the jury which convicted her of the murder of her husband, motion for a new trial will be made on the usual statutory grounds.

TRYING KNOCKOUT DROPS ON THEMSELVES

Robber Band in New York Makes a Novel Experiment.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Half a dozen men and one woman alleged to have been rehearsing the administering of drugs used to stupefy intended victims of robbery have been arrested owing to the death of one of the party known as "Boston Frank."

According to a story told by one of the prisoners they had decided upon a trip to Philadelphia with the hope of increasing their wealth, and while drinking beer discussed the use of "knockout drops."

All expressed a desire to learn the best method and quantity necessary, so a small quantity of liquid containing opium was poured into the beer. "Boston Frank" emptied his glass and collapsed. He was taken into the open air and an ambulance called. He died before he could be taken to the hospital. The others drank only a small quantity and soon recovered. They were all imprisoned pending action by the coroner.

COMPLETELY FAGGED OUT

A painless sickness—you couldn't describe your feelings if you tried. You know you are sick, but perhaps there is no special ache or pain to indicate the seat of the disease. The pale, colorless skin, muscular weakness, nervousness, fitful appetite and all-gone, tired feeling means anaemia or blood poverty, a weak, watery and innutritious condition of the vital fluid. The system is clamoring for richer and better blood; the muscles and nerves are starving for the food that the blood can no longer supply, and it is little wonder that the body grows weaker and is soon completely fagged out. You can't retain vigor and strength on poor blood. It must be full of nutrition and life-giving properties. Health is bound to decline and the system run down if its source of supply is cut off. Everything that goes to nourish the body and sustain life passes through the blood. It contains bone-making, tissue-forming material, food for the nerves, and stimulates and vitalizes all the organs of the body. It can't do this when clogged with impurities and polluted by humors and poisons, for it then becomes a source of disease instead of health, and leads to innumerable disorders.

At this season of the year the blood is most apt to break down because of the extra efforts made to throw off the winter's accumulation of poisons, and if weak at the beginning it soon gives out and the system collapses. Nearly everybody needs a good blood purifier and tonic now to help out the blood and aid in cleansing the circulation of all obstructions, and as soon as this is accomplished and the system is receiving a supply of rich nutritious blood, color returns to the skin, the nerves are again tingling with health, the appetite increases—and that completely fagged-out feeling disappears. S. S. S. contains both purifying and tonic properties, making it the ideal remedy in such cases, and being a strictly vegetable medicine doesn't shock the system or derange the stomach and digestion like Potash, Arsenic and other strong mineral compounds. S. S. S. for the Blood is known everywhere as the greatest of all blood purifiers and tonics, and for years has been used for diseases due to an impure or weakened condition of the blood. Under its tonic effects the appetite and promotes digestion like S. S. S. Keep the blood, the fountain source of health and life, free of impurities and in a vigorous and strong condition, and you will never experience that completely fagged-out, nervous state so common at this time of the year. If you would like medical advice or other information, write us and your letter shall have prompt attention from our physicians. Book on the blood and its diseases mailed free.

HEALTH RUN DOWN, NO APPETITE AND ALWAYS TIRED.

Columbus, Ohio, May 19, 1903.

Some four years ago I was suffering from impure blood and a general run-down condition of the system. I had no appetite, was losing in flesh, and an all-gone tired feeling that made me feel miserable.

I began the use of S. S. S. and after taking seven or eight bottles my skin was cleared of all eruptions and took on a ruddy, healthy glow that assured me that my blood had been restored to its normal, healthy condition. My appetite was restored, as I could eat anything put before me, and as I regained my appetite I increased in weight, and that "tired feeling," which worried me so much, disappeared, and I was once again my old self.

I heartily recommend S. S. S. as the best blood purifier and tonic made, and strongly advise its use to all those in need of such medicine.

STRENGTH, ENERGY, HEALTH AND VIGOR.

Kenton, Ohio, August 22, 1903.

Gentlemen:—S. S. S. has been used in our family for years and we think a great deal of it. It is used for a tonic mostly. I have also found it a splendid medicine for stomach troubles. Was for a long time bothered with Dyspepsia, but of late years haven't been troubled with it. Am confident S. S. S. relieved it. As a tonic it builds up the system in every way, gives strength, energy and appetite; in other words, brings health and vigor.

My husband has also used it and has the same good opinion of it. We think it the greatest medicine made, and can recommend it to all in need of a tonic or blood purifier.
